

Element Sheet – Robbery by Use of Force
943.32(1)(a)

1. The defendant took and carried away property from the person or from the presence of the person who was the owner of the property.
2. The defendant took the property with the intent to steal.
3. The defendant used force against the person with the intent to overcome or prevent physical resistance or physical power of resistance to the taking away or carrying away of the property.