

Element Sheet – Robbery by Threat of Force
943.32(1)(b)

1. The defendant took and carried away property from the person or from the presence of person who was the owner of the property.
2. The defendant took the property with the intent to steal.
3. The defendant threatened the imminent use of force against the person with the intent to compel acquiescence in the taking and carrying away of the property.